It is very satisfactory to see that the Finance Committee of the Alice Me-Per Verouz, at 5 p.m.; on Friday, the morial Hospital have, through the generosity of Mr H. W. question, and the walls of the building being unequal to carrying another storey, the removal of the Hospital to another site scemed the only possible course. But when the question of ways and means come to be dis on the 17th instent, and is due here on or cussed it was found that it would make too great a demand on the resources of the institution. Apart from this there was a strong objection to giving up the advantage which the Hospital derives, to agree with Dr Doberck that there was especially as regards its out-patient work, from its central position. In these circumstances the erection of a supplementary Hospital on the Beanregard site was the only alternative left, The next question was how the cost (estimated at $10,000) was to be met. The committee suggested to Mr Davis, the founder of the Nethersole Dispensary, that the $7000 put in trust for the support of that institution might be devoted to defraying the cost the new building, as the dispensary would not be required if a plementary Hospital were opened Bonham Road, Mr Davis not only agreed to this proposal, but generously are those who say the Observatory is a Case Per Bot. offered to give the sum of $3000 which would still be required to meet the cost; of the new building. > by the Captain Superintendent of Police to which is sure to be appropriated by the whole of the men residing at the Central Station. Hitherto the Recreation Room closed at 9 p.m., an arrangement which prevented the men coming off day duty from obtaining any recreation before retiring to rest puless they went outside the Station. This alternative was not conducive to the welfare of the men, who pelitioned Major-General Gordon in favour of the Room being kept open till 11 p.m. The 'round robin' was largely sigued, and, no sconor was it presented than Majorieneral Gordon granted the prayer of the perition. The result is extreme gratification among the men. With a view to creating a stronger coprit de corps in the Police Force, as well as making the mon more efficient, would it not be worth while to consider whether more facilities should on given the man for rifle practice! At present, the price of ammunition is high enough, while the opportunities for using the Rifle Range are not so frequent as the men wish. No inducement is held out to the men to excel in rifle practice. Each man must fire 40 rounds a-year, it does not much matter whether he puts every charge into the sand-bank or on the target. His only reward is a markemen's badge should he score a certain number of points. The firing of these 40 rounds is supposed to qualify each member of the force in the use of the rifle in case of emergency. It appears to the outsider that there is need for a Rifle Club for the Police Force, as well as other means for providing exercise and recreation for the men. A properly elected Committee might be able to organise some rational amusements, and if some of the older members of the force would only nterest themselves in the matter, the

THE PO LEUNG KUK.

To the Editor of the ' CHINA MAIL.' . Hongkong, Juna 17. SIR. - You have been favoured with some correspondence on the subject of the Loung Kuk and the surprise visits' the Hon. T. H. Whitehead has paid to that Institution since his appointment to the P Loung Kuk Commission, and it appears to me a certain amount of misconception likely to arise from the statements of your correspondents. I will not discuss the subject of the good taste which dictated Mr Whitehoad's action; that is a matter which concerns himself primarily, and he will doubtless be ready enough to meet and confute any insignations on that score. Your correspondents seem to have forgotten that the Commission of Inquiry was appointed in consequence of Mr. White head's outspoken criticism of the management of the Po Loung Kuk. Now, if 'Fairplay' only knew Mr Whitehead thoroughly he would also know that Mr . Whitehead is not the man to attack any public or semipublic institution unless he has the fullest and best authoritented information to go upon. It may be said in reply if that is sowhat use is there for making these surprise visits? Well, while not recognising their utility. I have the most -implicit trust in century. Next to Dr Liowson, E.
